We connect families and hearts through desserts. We help create heart-to-heart reunions. We continue to make heart-to-heart desserts. We provide heart-to-heart services and hospitality. We are heart-to-heart with local communities. We are heart-to-heart and aim for happiness. These "five pledges" are derived from the corporate attitude of contributing to society through the medium of "desserts". We believe that "desserts should be easier to enjoy", so we continue to pursue "delicious and reasonable prices" to make desserts part of daily life at home. Desserts become more delicious at home because we believe that desserts are food for the soul. Its charm is like the sweet and gentle eyes of a mother.
